

Open House

January 16, 2003

Ronald Reagan International Trade Center

0900-1200

Patch Authentication & Dissemination Capability

Program Overview and Online Demonstration

Why PADDC?

- Establish a patch authentication and validation capability for FedCIRC customers.
- Help managers, system administrators, and security personnel with the complex task of securing government systems.
- Auto-Notification
 - New system vulnerabilities
 - Patch release
 - Validated patch availability

Features and Benefits

- Features

- Security Status Snapshots
- Per-Node Analysis
- Patches Authenticated/Tested/Validated/Posted
- Secure Servers, Real-time Reporting
- Top-down management capability
- 24/7/365 availability

- Benefits

- Timely, automatic notification
- Web-based, secure, single source of patch info
- Help Desk Support – 8AM-8PM EST
- No cost to you

Account Management Process

- Account Managers
 - Senior IT Security Personnel
 - Ensure authorized use of PADDC licenses
 - Create, delete, and maintain user accounts
 - Reset/change user passwords
 - Incorporate the process into agency policies and procedures
 - Pre-registration assistance available today
- Sub-Account Managers
 - Also Senior IT Security Personnel
 - Created by Account Managers
 - Same responsibilities and capabilities as Account Managers

Registration/Subscription

- Users
 - Activated by Account Managers/Sub-Account Managers
- All
 - Build profiles and can shadow their accounts when away
- Reporting Users
 - FedCIRC Management Center
 - Account created by agency Account Manager

Pre-Registration of Agency Account Managers

- Complete the appropriate pre-registration form and submit to the FedCIRC Management Center.
- Upon approval by agency CIO or senior leadership, identify yourself as the Agency PADDC Account Manager to all agency ISSO/ISSMs, network and system administrators, and others who have patch management responsibilities.
- Account creation data will be assigned by the appropriate PADDC support staff via secure methods as provided in the registration form.

Account Management Process Contact Information

- If you require additional assistance or would like to schedule a meeting with a FedCIRC representative to discuss PADDC Account Management within your organization, please feel free to contact us.

FedCIRC Management Center

Telephone: (202) 708-5060

Fax: (202) 708-5869

Email: info@fedcirc.gov